Vice Minister Wang Meets with Nu Skin President & CEO Truman Hunt

April 1, 2011 - 11:26 BJT (18:26 GMT) MOFCOM

Chinese Version

Vice Minister of Commerce Wang Chao met with Truman Hunt, Nu Skin President & CEO, and his party in Beijing on March 31.

Vice Minister Wang expressed his welcome to Mr. Truman Hunt and his party, and spoke highly of the investment development in China of Nu Skin and its earnest performance of social responsibilities.

Vice Minister Wang introduced the situation of Sino-U.S. relations and trade and economic cooperation to them, and said, Sino-U.S. trade and economic cooperation is the foundation of the sound development of Sino-U.S. relations. To promote the constant development of bilateral trade and economic relations needs the positive participation and practical cooperation of enterprises of the two countries. He also hoped that Nu Skin could continue increasing its cooperation with China, introduce China to the political circles of the U.S., and increasingly play a role in promoting the sound development of Sino-U.S. relations.

When it comes to the development of the direct-selling, Vice Minister Wang Chao stated that the Chinese government opened its direct-selling market in accordance with its commitments when accessing into the WTO, formulated in 2005 Administrative Regulations on Direct-selling, Regulations on Prohibiting Pyramid-selling, and specific rules on market access and industrial management based on Chinese conditions. China will thoroughly implement the two Regulations so as to ensure the steady and orderly development of direct-selling industry and hopes that Nu Skin will operate and increase its investment for greater development according with the two Regulations.
